WALTERIA TO HONOR PAST PTA PRESIDENTS

Walteria PTA past presidents will be honored at the group's meeting Feb. 14 at 2 p.m. in the school auditorium. Mrs. Glen Hardcastle, president, announced yesterday.

Two persons will be presented with honorary life membership pins by B. J. Michels, honorary life membership chairman. The money subscribed to the state PTA for these memberships will be used to aid students in teacher-training programs through loans and scholarships.

Pupils from Meses, Marilyn Nickson and Dorothe De Rosa's fourth grades and from James Hamilton's sixth grade will present a Founder's Day skit. Also scheduled is a comedy act by three PTA mothers.

Others on the program will be Barbara Book, Elaine Phelps and Virginia Ann Cheek of the sixth grade, and Marsha Iwata. Mrs. Fern Springer will accompany on the piano. Fourth grade mothers are to be hosted.

SPRING FASHIONS TO BE MODELED BY WOMAN'S CLUB

Junior and senior Woman's Club members are busy with beauty as they prepare to model spring fashions in the forthcoming style show to be sponsored jointly by the two groups.

The ways and means project is scheduled for March 19 at 8 p.m. in Civic Auditorium. Gowns and other garments will be from the Sam Levy Department Store.

Senior President Mrs. B. W. Roberts and Mrs. C. E. Wallace, president of the Junior Woman's Club, are choosing committees for the event.

Ticket holders for the Fanny McEnroe lecture slated for Feb. 18 are reminded that they may bring a guest. The lecture will commence at 8 p.m. in the clubhouse.

Irma Trezise Repeats Vows In Las Vegas

El Segundo is the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Foster who exchanged wedding vows Jan. 10 in the Little Chapel, Las Vegas, Nev.

Mrs. Foster is the former Mrs. Irma Trezise of Torrance, and was feted with her bridegroom at a reception Jan. 27 by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nyberg in their home, 4343 W. 105th St., Inglewood.

50 guests honored the newlyweds, including sons and daughters-in-law of both the bride and groom, Messrs. and Mrs. Burdette Foster of Los Angeles, Glenn Foster of Los Angeles, Lester Foster of Torrance, Alvin Foster of Whittier, R. B. Trezise, all of Torrance.

The Fosters are making their home at 535 Indiana St., In El Segundo.

VFW Auxiliary to Have 'Kidnap' Breakfast Soon

A "kidnap" breakfast was proposed by members of the Ladies Auxiliary to VFW Post 3251 at their recent meeting when final plans for last Saturday's food sale were completed.

Reports of the sale will be given at the business session Feb. 12, followed by an exchange of Valentines.

Sewing days will be the second and fourth Thursday of each month, according to Mrs. George Crabtree, publicity chairman. Mrs. Elizabeth Allen was hostess to the most recent needle-and-thread session.

Several members of the auxiliary and VFW Post attended a rally to stimulate membership, which took place Jan. 29 in the Gardena VFW hall. Entertainment featured a Canadian Legion drill team and pupils of Anne Olson's dancing class.

NEW DANCE DATE SET BY NATIONAL

A change in dates has been announced by National Supply Employees Club.

The February dance originally planned for Feb. 16 will take place Feb. 23 at the Hermosa Biltmore. Ken Perkins of Torrance and his Tunemiths will provide music for the gala affair when the company's "Miss Ideal" will be chosen and crowned.

Y To Begin New Women's Group Today

Tonight at 7:30 the Young Business Women's group of the Torrance YWCA will be inaugurated.

Climaxing plans which have been under way for some months, Mrs. Floyd Miller is calling the initial meeting of the group which will be open to all employed women between the ages of 18 and 35.

Tentative programs will be discussed tonight, as well as methods of increasing membership in the group. Plans now call for meetings the first and third Thursday of each month.

MOOSE WOMEN FETE CHIEF

Members of the Torrance Women of the Moose chapter yesterday journeyed to San Pedro for a meeting honoring Grand Chancellor Katherine Smith.

Many women from the group and their guests enjoyed a pot-luck supper and evening of cards last Wednesday evening in Moose Hall.

PTA Reports Two Drives Successful

Two "well done's" have been voiced by chairmen of North Torrance Elementary PTA—one for the Mothers March and the other for the paper and rag drive.

Mrs. Marrien Coats, philanthropy committee chairman, reported that $315.81 was collected during the march by 31 volunteer mothers in North Torrance. $152.63 collected by the school children rounded out the area's total of $468.34.

The largest tonnage in any North Torrance paper drive was reported according to Mrs. Harry Van Bellechem, finance and budget chairman of North Torrance PTA. Upper grade award went to Mrs. A. Willis' room, while Miss Olive Marshall's class took the lower grade first place. Another drive has been planned for spring.

Sixteen girls and women representing the Torrance Y were guests of the San Pedro Business Women's group Monday evening. Included were Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Charlotte Lukes, branch director of the Torrance YWCA; Meses, Juanita Bozeman, Evelyn Russell, Joyce

Baby Shower Honors Mrs. W. H. Howe

Seated beneath an attractive crepe paper umbrella, Mrs. W. H. Howe of 28320 Governor Ave., Harbor City, opened many lovely gifts during a baby shower given in her honor by Mrs. Ed Enrietta at her home in Torrance Thursday evening.

Upon her arrival the honoree was presented with a corsage of pink roses from the hostess and a group of games was entered into by the guests which afforded much merriment.

Party Fetes Sixth Grade Youngsters

Students in Thomas Baker's A-6 room at 186th St. School were honored guests at a festive party recently hosted by members of the student body and PTA.

Richard Brown was in charge of arrangements, assisted by two of his students, Miss Ebon Murray and Miss Susan Spittle. Miss Sharon Lang, mistress of ceremonies, presented a program of music, dancing and glee club selections.

Honorees included Meses Lana Tamen, Sharon Stivers, Arlene Shepard, Earlene Rutherford, Gloria Jean Preston, Rosalee Meave, Shirley Ameyma, Dolores Helmit, Kathleen Harris; Masters Richard Welch, James Smith, Charles Rose, Ronald McMillon, Donald Cox, Fred Evans and Barry McMillen.

Refreshments were served by B-6 students. Mary J. Hawkes, principal of the school, was among the guests.

Later in the evening a large sheet cake beautifully decorated with yellow rose-buds, a stork and a tiny baby was cut and served with open-faced sandwiches, molded jello salad and coffee. Adding a festive touch to each tray of refreshments was a miniature baby buggy with chocolate mints used for wheels and each one filled with candies.

The guest group included Mesdames John Balch, Walter Graham, Irene Howe, W. G. Milburn, Mildred Hooper, Carl Westfall, Steve Stephens, Edmund Enrietta, James Biller, F. O. Roberts, Ray Young, Carl Bower, Sylvia Wieden, Harry Grish, John Calloway, Clarence Berry, Orin Robinson, Charles Smith, the honoree, Mrs. Howe of the Lomita-Harbor City area; Mrs. David Scott and Mrs. Robert Reynolds of Pasadena and Mrs. Kenneth Hedge of Gardena.

Song Writers Meet Tonight

Persons interested in song writing and poetry are bidden to a meeting of the Song Writers' Club tonight at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Zelma Empey, 715 Columbia Ct.

The members heard addresses by Joe Ankeny of the Sunland Music Publishing Co. and Don Meyers, Ted Royce and Bill Rodriguez of Charm Recording Co., Hollywood, at their January meeting.

Hostess to the recent gathering in her studio was Mrs. Kathryn Buffington, 1026 Arlington Ave. Two of her pupils, Eldridge Walker and Victoria Reno, played several piano selections for the group. Leo Leonard presided over the meeting and introduced the speakers.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

Military Order of the Purple Heart Auxiliary 210 of Long Beach will have an all-day meeting Feb. 16 at the new home of Mrs. A. J. Helms, 2917 Colorado St. in Torrance Gardens.
